DEDICATION . . .

The Senior Class of 1959 feels great pride, privilege, and honor in dedicating its yearbook to three men who are worthy of our greatest respect and admiration, Brother J. Leopold, F.S.C., Brother I. Matthias, F.S.C., and Brother Lawrence Egbert, F.S.C.

We consider them the essence of the spirit of "Brother" for all "Brothers' boys." They are truly the "Brothers" who have given this phrase its greatest meaning. Through the past decades, they taught and guided many of our parents and other relations toward their respective vocations in life. They have long experience in producing these "Brothers' boys" and may well take pride in all of their students, past, present, and future.

Those of us who are graduating this year cannot help but long remember their presence during our high school years. When we see the fruits of their long efforts, we know that they have played a great part in building the citizens of our community and nation.

To these three Brothers we give our congratulations and admiration for their long and continued service to God and the education of youth.

FACULTY MESSAGE

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations on the successful completion of your High School days here at Christian Brothers.

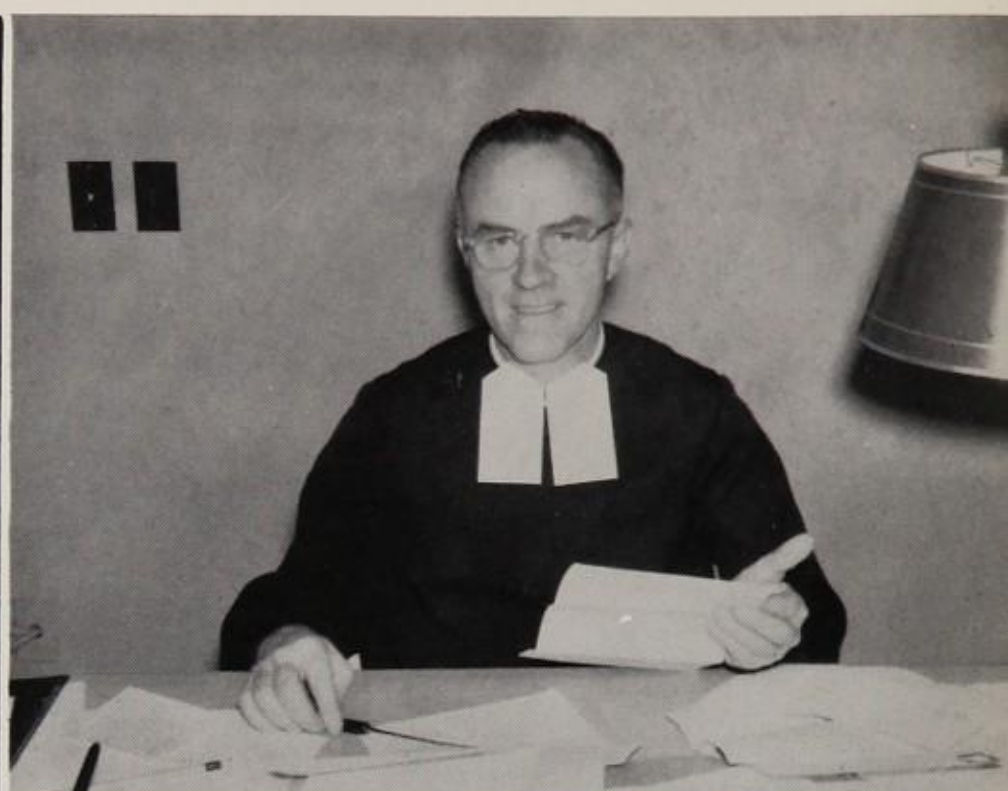

Four short years ago you enrolled at the school fired with ambition and intent upon profiting by all the opportunities that were open to you. Today, as we see you ready to leave us and join the ranks of the Alumni, we feel that your objectives have all been realized. Your sense of loyalty and cooperation has been most impressive; your good example will be an inspiration to those that will follow.

The Brothers' prayers and best wishes will be with you daily, for we know that you will continue to be a credit to Christian Brothers High School, an honor to your country and your faith, and a source of gratification to your parents.

You are assured of a welcome at Christian Brothers any time that you return. Your continued success and progress will be our main concern, and our prayers and best wishes will be with you daily. May God grant you the realization of your fondest hopes!

Sincerely,

BROTHER H. STEPHEN, F.S.C.
Principal

Dear Graduates:

Every young man leaving high school has good reason to ask himself, "Am I ready for it all?"

Some of you will be going immediately into the world of business, some will be entering the armed forces, and many expect to continue your education in college. But all of you, no matter in what situation of life, will be asked two fundamental questions. What sort of technical preparation do you have? What sort of man are you?

The new world you enter will soon find out how well you have profited from the practical aspects of the education you have been given. And they won't have to wait long either to find out what kind of moral and religious principles you have made part of yourself during these past few years.

If you have cooperated with your teachers as well as you could, you have little to fear. The countless honorable and even excellent records made by devoted Brothers' Boys all over the world testify to the fact that as competent and conscientious men in a demanding world they need give place to no one. So, as the newest members of a long tradition, your years at Christian Brothers High School give you the assurance that your answer to the two great questions posed by this hectic world will be successful ones. God bless you.

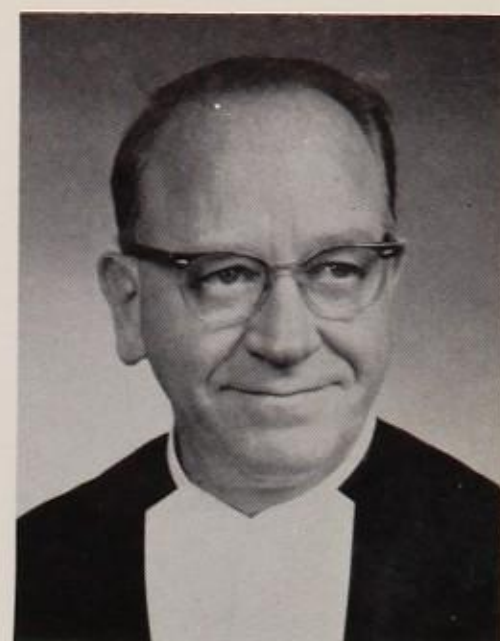

Sincerely,

What, Brother?

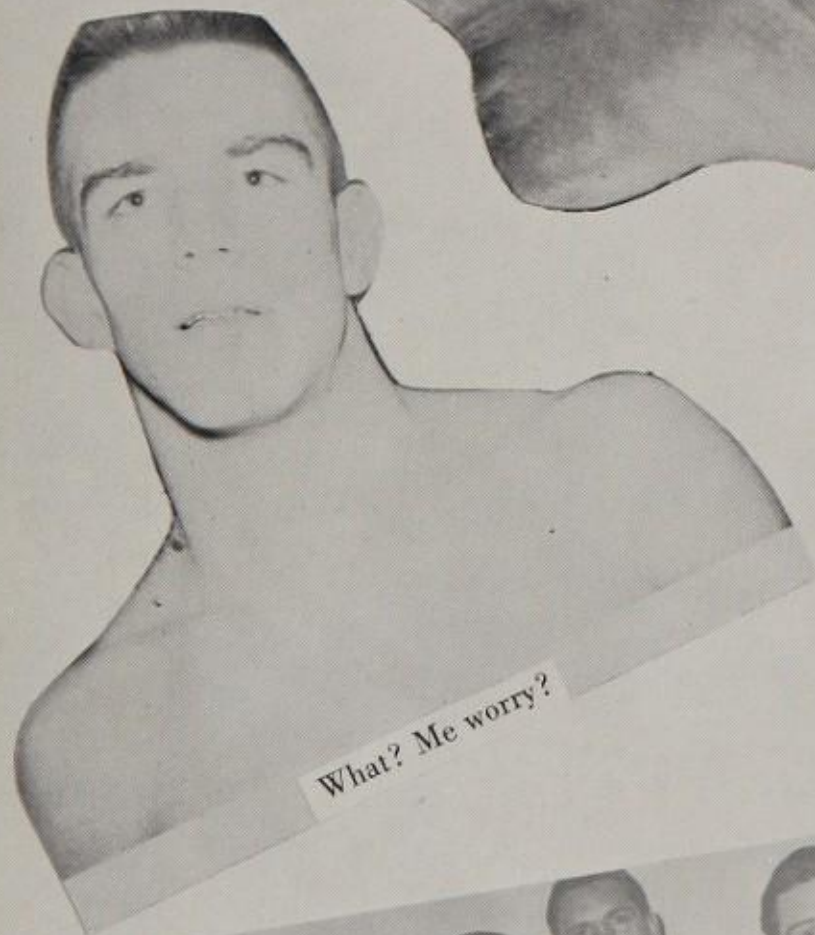

Poor Richard!!

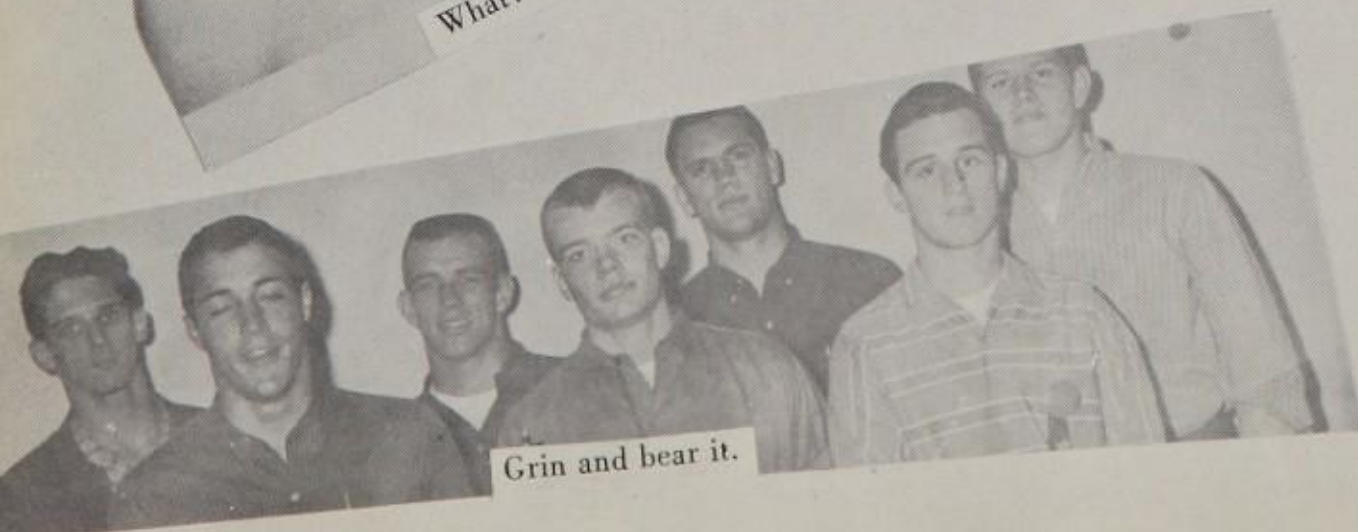

Where from?

Meanwhile, back at the ranch.

What? Me worry?

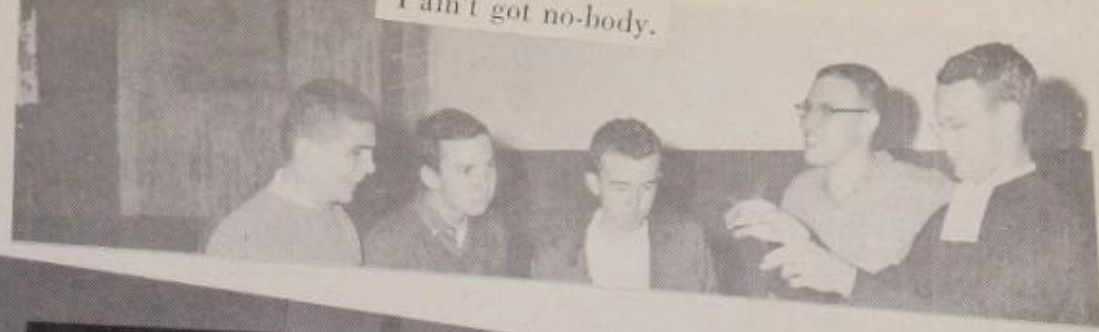

Grin and bear it.

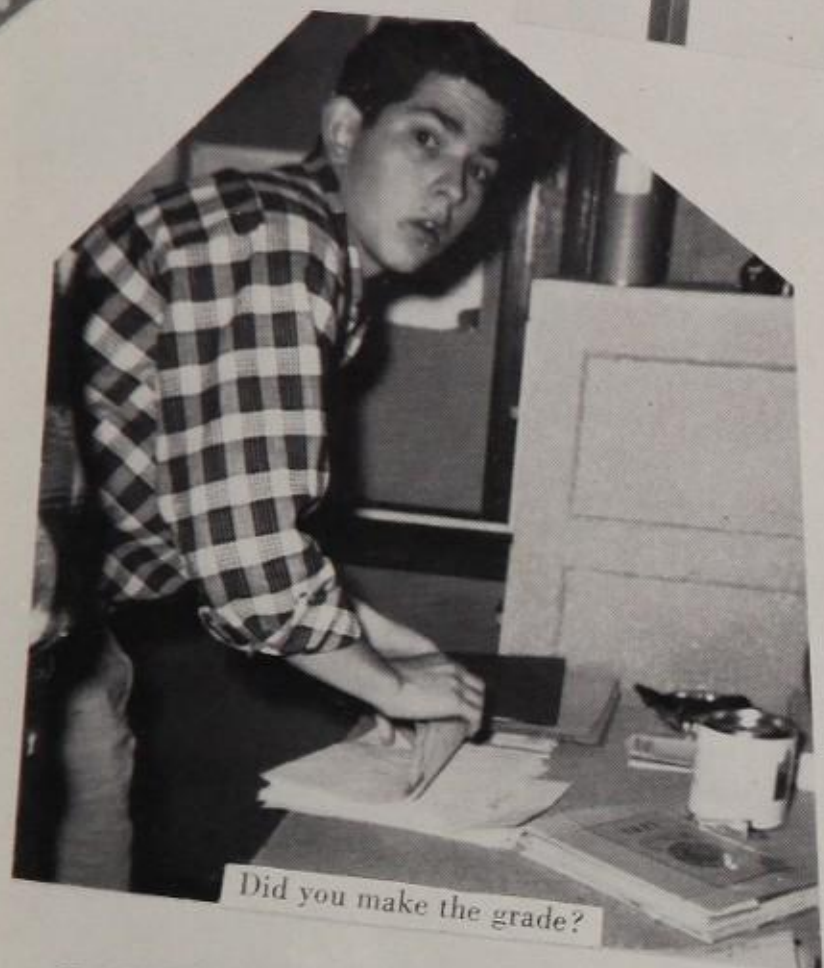

What about tonight?

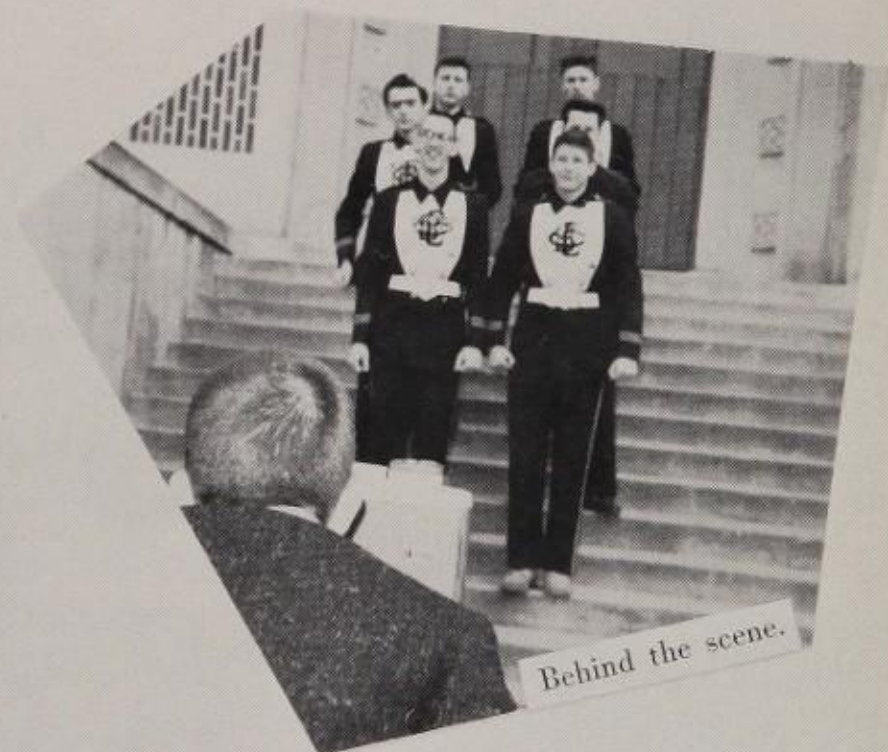

I ain't got no-body.

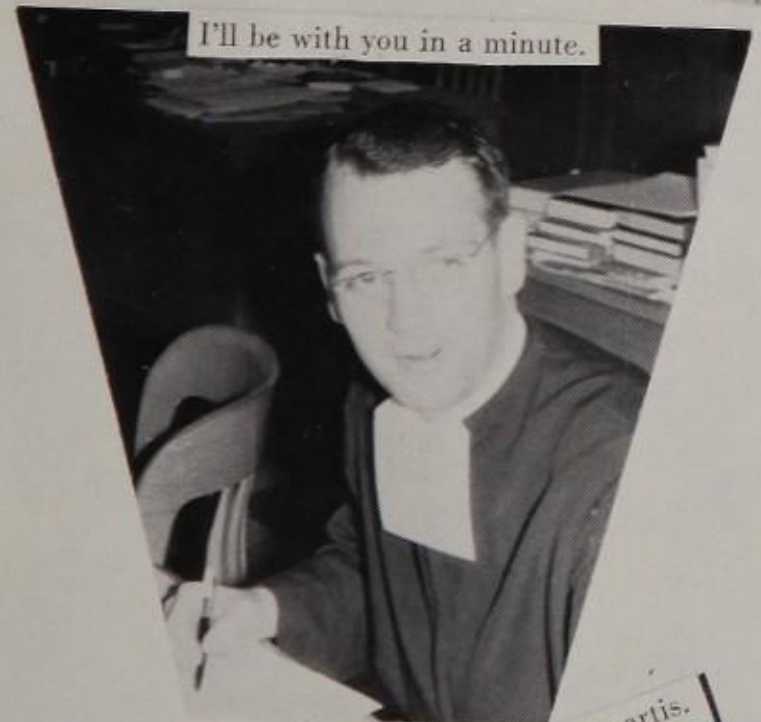

Pass the popcorn, Johnny.

Did you make the grade?

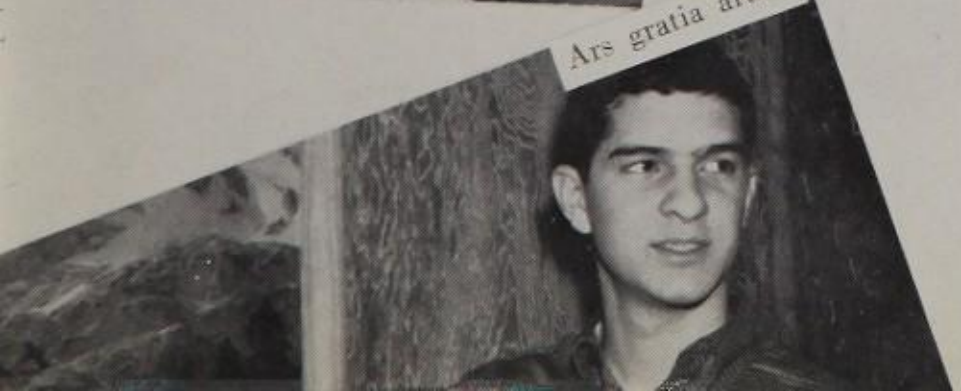

Behind the scene.

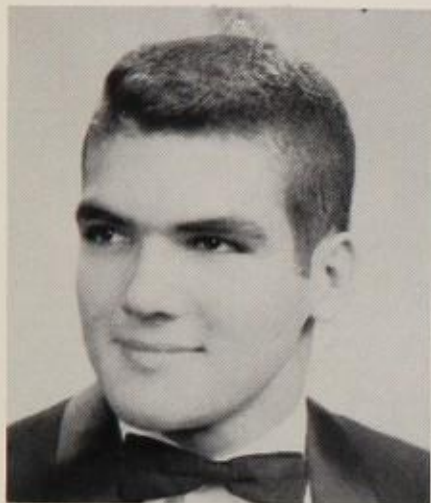

I'll be with you in a minute.

The National Honor Society started at CBHS in 1946. Since that time the Brothers have selected 220 members. The N.H.S. is an honorary award group, membership in which is presented to CBC's outstanding seniors. The men who are selected must have first-rank qualities of leadership, scholarship, service, and character. In order that a person be selected for this group, he must show outstanding qualities in all four of these categories.

To even be considered for the N.H.S., one must have at least an 85% average; this fulfills the scholarship specification. He must then possess high and equal qualities in character, leadership, and service. The qualification of character is based on a person's courtesy, cooperation, dependability, and honesty.

Leadership is based on one's reputation, influence for good, and loyalty to the school. Lastly, the quality of service is considered, based on the number of activities in which one participates, and on what one does for the betterment of the school.

Before one is chosen, he is thoroughly discussed, examined, and judged on the basis of these points. This judging is done by the entire faculty, as well as by the candidates themselves. The final selection is made by a faculty committee; this selection is primarily a matter of elimination, requiring much time for careful scrutiny and deliberation.

With the opening of the school year, Student Government was already in full swing. First project on the agenda was Freshman Orientation. After finishing this successfully, the group got down to business. Project followed project: intramurals began full-steam, the water fountains in the school building were repaired, the trash receptacles around the grounds were brightened up with a new coat of paint, the gym was arranged for the retreat, the big Homecoming pep rally, bonfire, and dance were held, and many other projects continued throughout the year.

SENIOR GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JUNIOR GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Looking for a solution to one of the many problems that the Student Government encounters, with C. Gallina, Vice President, are (back row): B. Morrow, P. Mann, B. Sobral, A. Leshnower, J. Miller, P. Zanone, M. Pleasants. (In front): B. Wade, B. Solmson, R. Gilman, B. Downing, and J. W. Clark. Missing is R. Prest.

GOVERNMENT

Four years ago at Christian Brothers High School, Student Government was given a trial year; since then it has grown to be the most respected and active organization on the campus. This year, under the leadership of F. Hughes and the moderatorship of Brother Stephen, the principal, it has truly fulfilled its purpose, as stated in its Constitution: "... to promote and co-ordinate all social and cultural functions of the high school, to control the extracurricular activities of the general Student Body, and ... to act as the official representative group of the Student Body."

FRESHMAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Learning Student Government ways from B. Wade, Treasurer, are (back row): T. Nestrud, J. Saxon, J. Bishop, P. Miller, J. Borg, G. Levy, D. Weir, F. Remmers. (In front): B. Willey, S. Boyle, T. Taylor, and W. Tonning.

At the right are some of the school artists starting a poster for one of the school's clubs. They are the members of the Publications Committee. Drawing posters for outstanding school events is only one of the committee's duties; in addition, the chairman must approve every other poster in the school before it is put up, make periodic inspections of the school's corridors and bulletin boards to be sure nothing is out of place, and publish Student Government news in the school paper. From left to right, they are: C. Schaffler, T. Foster, Chairman John Joe Mulrooney, B. Williams, and K. Hanover.

At left, drawing up the schedule for the basketball intramurals, is the Athletic Committee. During the year, the committee spent hours planning and sponsoring all the athletic and intramural programs. Their list includes volleyball, football, bowling, basketball, and track. Not only did they take care of the refereeing, but also did many afternoons' work laying out the various fields. From left to right, they are: F. Hughes, J. Wimmer, P. Baldwin, Chairman Vic Cavola, S. Dino, and P. Miller.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT COMMITTEEMEN

Carrying packages is only one of the numerous duties of the Student Activities and Relations Committee. As the name states, the main duty of the committee is to plan and co-ordinate all student activities. Numbered among their top accomplishments was the fabulous Homecoming before the Central championship game. Planning the bonfire program and the dance wasn't easy, but it will surely be remembered as one of the outstanding campus events of 1958. At right, from left to right, on the stairs, are: J. Fenberg (bearded), R. Hawkins, Chairman, Buddy Soefker, B. Solmson, and P. Pettit. Missing are J. Hammett and F. Hughes.

SERVING THE SCHOOL . . .

The Key Club, whose standard is service to both the school and the community, again this year promoted a successful program of projects and activities. The members, after being admitted by special selection, participate in a wide range of both personal and social actions. The whole group joined in to sponsor activities such as the Talent Show, obtaining College Information for Seniors, holding the Annual Oscar Assembly, arranging a Student Directory, and many other worthwhile projects. This year the purpose of the club, that is to use the key of service to open the door of responsibility to oneself and society, was certainly fulfilled. Brother Roger is the moderator of the Club.

AND THE BAND

As usual, the first day of school found the bandsmen well on their way, for they begin practice in the summer. All the long hours in summer and after school paid off, however, for they piled up almost more awards than they can count. As an added, but well-deserved, surprise, Mr. Hale received a coveted award from the Bands of America recognizing him as one of the outstanding high school band-leaders in the United States. Congratulations to the entire band for a job truly well done!

Above are the five men who led the band this year—the four in uniform, as officers; and the fifth, Mr. Hale, as its instructor, conductor, and arranger. From left to right, they are: J. Kidd, Secretary; L. Migliara, Librarian; Mr. Hale; B. Chiles, Vice President; and W. Horton, President.

PLAYED ON . . .

The band doesn't only provide us with entertaining concerts throughout the year—there is much more to its functioning than this. Its purpose is twofold: besides being at the very core of school spirit, it also provides each member with excellent musical instruction, and thus a preparation for later life. However, this preparation applies not only to music, for, at the same time he is acquiring his musical training, he builds both his character and leadership, through discipline and perseverance.

"People . . . one ana two ana . . ." Above is one of the many band practices during the year which has begun in the familiar manner. Mr. Hale, award-winning director of the band, makes a few corrections occasionally, but all of them go to make up the best band CBHS has had for years. Hard work really paid off!

Juniors are also a strong part of the Y.C.S. movement at C.B.H.S.; preparation for next year is very important, so they are learning the true Y.C.S. spirit through work. Spotlighting their main project of the year, the Legion of Decency movie ratings board, are from left to right: B. Downing, T. Gagliano, B. Grobmeyer, J. W. Clark, P. Pettit, C. Huettel, G. Loud, and M. Angelo.

LEARNING THE STUDENT VOCATION

At left, are the Sophomores; however, in this case they aren't the "wise fools" many believe them to be. They are among the hardest working groups in the school. From left to right, they are: P. Baldwin, V. Kouns, M. Watermeier, M. Parks, M. Barre, M. Arnoult, B. Metz, M. Tragarz, E. Segerson, and J. Reno.

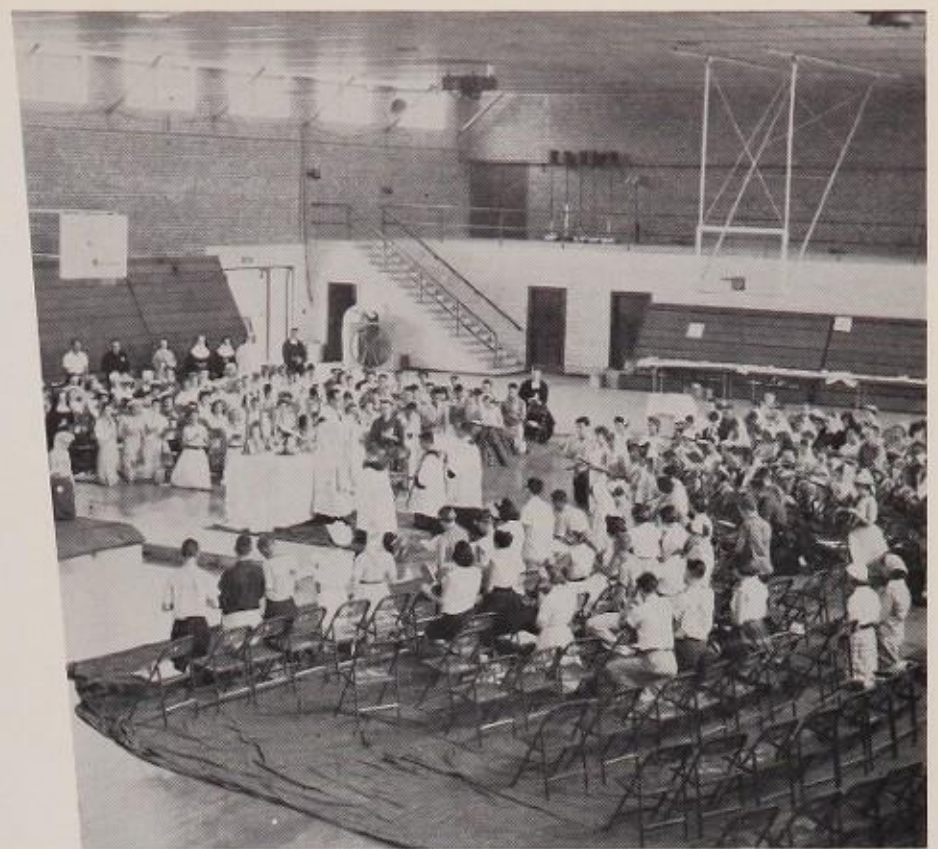

Paging through some literature in the Young Christian Students' library gives valuable ideas to the three section leaders. At the left is B. Metz, Sophomore leader; B. Williams, Senior leader; and P. Pettit, Junior leader. Besides planning and co-ordinating Y.C.S. activities in the school, these boys have made numerous trips to represent Memphis in National Conventions. Aiming at a re-Christianization of school life, in particular, the Y.C.S. meets once a week to discuss and plan its methods for the coming week. Brother Luke Paul moderated both the Senior and Junior groups.

Dedicating its efforts to help the world to Mary, the Blessed Mother, and asking all their blessings through her is the Legion of Mary. Because of their quiet, "underground" methods, many people have never heard of this spiritually powerful organization; however, the late Pope Pius XII declared it to be one of the greatest tools of the Church. Among their numerous projects were additions to the school book test library and the selection of the best magazine articles of the week.

LEGION OF MARY

On December 7, the state-wide Legion of Mary held a day-long conference on the campus of CBHS. Among the honored dignitaries attending was Bishop William Adrian of Nashville. In charge of planning and making arrangements for this day of spiritual growth were Brother Roger, moderator, and the CBHS praesidium of the Legion. Above is a scene from the Mass which ended the spiritually revitalizing day.

THE HARVEST IS GREAT BUT THE LABORERS . . .

Our Lord Himself said the laborers were far too few. The principle aim of the Benildus Club is to encourage good vocations through prayer; a boy doesn't necessarily join the club because he feels that he has a vocation, but because he sees the need for more of them, whether for him or for others. Besides offering prayers every day during their lunch hours, the Benildus Club members also conduct various charity projects—such as collection and distribution of clothes to the poor throughout the city, the selling of religious goods during the school retreat, and the sponsoring of the monthly First Friday Mass for vocations—throughout the year.

Fulfilling the club's purpose by offering prayer for good vocations, the active members are seen in the chapel. They are, in the FIRST PEW, from left to right: G. Lazarini, F. Hughes, P. Dwyer, J. Hudson, T. Foster. SECOND: J. O'Reilly, L. Holland, T. Gagliano, J. Miller, C. Schaffler, B. Rogers. THIRD: B. Chiles, B. Schreck, B. Williams, S. Dino, J. Hall, J. Wimmer. FOURTH: R. Curran, J. Gardino, R. Hawkins, J. Darst, G. Cau. FIFTH: B. Grobmeyer, B. Soefker, D. Godwin, T. Adair. SIXTH: C. Gallina, B. Moran, L. Robinson, B. Cianciolo. SEVENTH: P. Pettit, J. Gardello, B. McEniry, B. Strong. EIGHTH: B. Wade, M. Burkhardt, J. Atkinson, E. Patton, and J. Ebbitt. Missing is B. McNamara.

BEGINNING THE YEAR WITH GOD . . .

Never had the school been so quiet as on the third, fourth, and fifth of November. These days were those of the Annual Retreat. A retreat is just what it implies—a going away from the noisy outside world to be alone with God and to forget all your worries and pressures. This is just what the student body did; they took time out to find out where they stood with God. With Father John Donahue, for the Junior-Senior Retreat, and Father Philip Thoni, for the Freshmen and Sophomores, everyone truly had the chance to find their way to God and the means to stay there.

Almost five hundred Catholic students participated in the Retreat. The gym was the scene of this year's retreat. Here Brother Patrick, the Y.C.S., and the Student Government had set up the beautiful altar, and, of course, the chairs.

IT'S BIGGER AND BETTER

"At last!" was the general comment made after this shipment of pages was mailed off; weeks of effort had gone into them—but it was well worth the effort. At the right, J. Dunn, staff artist, and the section editors, left to right, B. Alford, B. Williams, J. Darst, and T. Gerwin, happily turn the shipment over to the United States Mail. It was hard work but everyone pitched in and made it easier—all this work went into the best annual we've ever had.

THAN EVER!!

At the right, the business editors count the week's money returns. They are, from left to right: T. Gerwin, the mastermind behind the business end of the annual, K. Hanover, B. Alford, B. Williams, J. Darst, and T. Foster. There were many things to be taken care of—speeches, poster hanging, order blanks, and, of course, recording collected money—since this year the staff sold a record number of annuals, over five hundred copies.

Planning the yearbook campaign was a lot of work—but also a lot of fun. Here, from left to right, B. Alford, F. Hughes, C. Schaffler, and J. Fenberg prepare to hang some posters, while B. McEniry helps J. Wimmer prepare for a speech. After beginning the campaign, collections of a dollar were made periodically during the year. With a record number of annual sales, the staff was kept busy enough collecting and recording the payments. It was a banner year for the yearbook all-round.

Above is the business staff for the yearbook who did a terrific job, selling a record number of annuals this year. From left to right, they are: B. Solmson, B. McEniry, J. Darst, C. Schaffler, E. Lee, B. Alford, B. Williams, T. Gerwin, V. Coletta, F. Hughes, P. Pettit, B. Sobral, K. Hanover, B. Downing, T. Foster, J. Graves, H. Herzog, and J. Fenberg. Missing is I. Fenton.

The Maurelian

Vol. 11 No. 3

Christian Brothers High School, Memphis

Oct. 10, 1958

After the staff finishes with the articles, the editors look them over before publications come out. There is even more to their job, though—writing editorials, covering news themselves, and representing CBHS at various meetings and teen-age news conferences. Above, typing up a hot article, are, from left to right, the editors: T. Foster, Features; K. Hanover, Editor-in-Chief; V. Coletta, Photographer; T. Gerwin, General News; and C. Schaffler, Sports.

LIBRARY CLUB

This year is the second year at CBHS for the Library Club. It is made up of a group of boys who give up their study period to help take some of the load off the shoulders of our regular librarians, Mrs. Harwood, Brother Roger and Brother Matthias. The boys' purpose is to help with general library work—stacking books, locating them in the stack room, checking them in and out, and, of course, collecting money for overdue books; at the same time, they provide themselves with the opportunity to learn an art for use in their later life that is an invaluable one: library science.

At the left, the president of this newly-formed group, B. Sobral, learns how to check out a book from Mrs. Margaret Harwood, club moderator. These two, Barry and Mrs. Harwood, have helped establish a very beneficial club for the whole student body.

With his familiar scowl, Brother Francis explains a chemistry experiment to the officers of the Science-Math Club. With him are, from left to right: T. Gerwin, Librarian-Laboratory Assistant; K. Hanover, President; T. Foster, Vice President; J. Darst, Social Secretary; and B. Williams, Secretary-Treasurer. This year, each of the duties of the Club was divided so that each small part fell on one of the boy's shoulders; after all the parts were assembled, the meeting was formed.

PREPARING FOR TOMORROW

With science occupying a more and more prominent place in the world today, the membership in the Science-Math Club has skyrocketed; never before have so many youths been interested in "how and why" a thing runs. Answering their desire to know more about the world around them, the Club presented, every three weeks at its meetings, outstanding speakers, representing such fields as chemistry, chemical engineering, printing, physics, and optics. Thus, rewarding knowledge was available for the members; for, science gives its own reward!

This year was a proud one for the Science-Math Club, as it had just become a member of Science Clubs of America. Also, for the second year, the school Science Fair was sponsored by the club. With projects ranging from biology through advanced mathematics, science became a living thing to all the participants, which was one of the aims of the Club. In addition to all this, field trips were planned for all the members and thus held a prominent spot in the Club's activities.

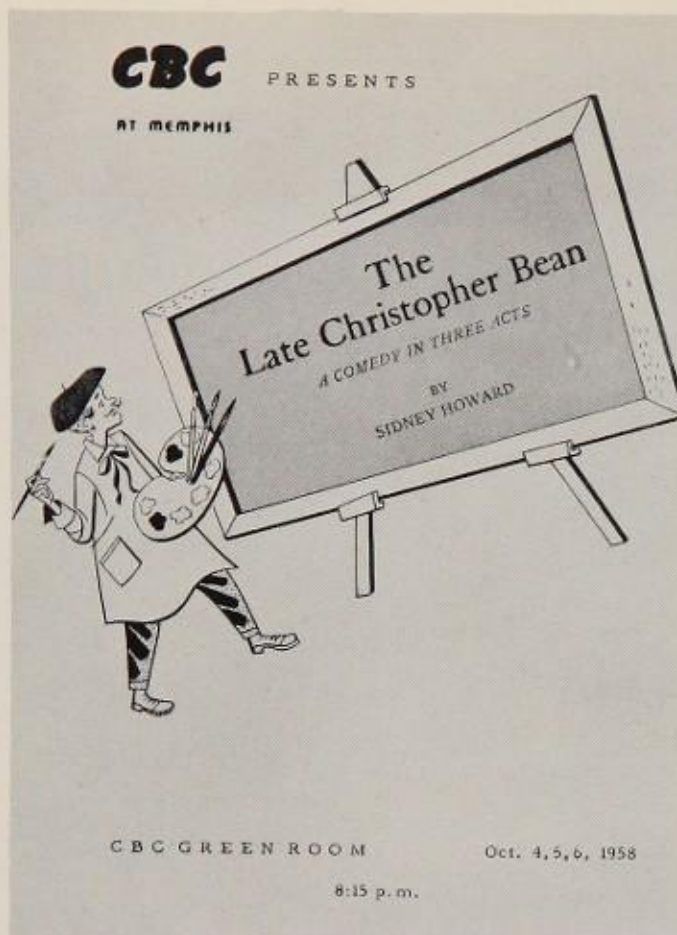

As a prerequisite for membership in the Club, a member is required to enter a project in the school science fair. Above, some of the ardent members of the Club test various apparatus in trying to decide on a project for the fair which was held during the latter part of March. From left to right, these scientific whizzes are: J. J. Mulrooney, G. Scanlon, B. Williams, and B. Chiles.

M A T H C L U B

THE LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN

In this delightful comedy, staged by CBC's own Brother Roger, the Haggett family realizes too late the value of the paintings left by Chris Bean, the great artist who had lived with them when alive. Their servant, Abby, owns the most precious of the paintings and will not part with it, for Bean had secretly been her husband.

Above, Mrs. Haggett (Shirley Lenti), Ada (Sharon Solomito), Susan (Marelise Gallina) and Warren Creamer (John Guidi) examine some of the paintings Creamer has just finished.

Abby just can't give up her husband's best painting, although Dr. Haggett (on phone), Davenport, and Mrs. Haggett offer some strong encouragement.

Participating in Charles Wykeham (Pat Dwyer) and Chesney's scheme to invite their girlfriends to tea, Bassett (John Baker) delivers a note to them. (above)

While Charley and Jack try to talk Lord Fancourt into playing "Charley's Aunt," Amy Spettigue (Sharon Solomito) and Kitty Verdun (Shirley Lenti) are excited over meeting the millionaire "aunt."

CHARLEY'S AUNT

All CBC had a chance to marvel and delight at the professional job done by Brother Roger and his cast. In the play, an Oxford undergraduate impersonates a wealthy aunt for his two friends and all three become involved in a mad, comic tangle with their sweethearts, especially when the real aunt turns up under an assumed name.

Above Sir Francis Chesney (Phil Arnoult) introduces the psuedo Donna Lucia to Stephen Spettigue (Charles Holder), who turns suitor in hopes that he may marry her money.

ROSE DANCE 1958

Surveying part of the fabulous decorations from "their" dance are the Seniors of 1959. Above are J. Wimmer, Class President, with K. Scruggs, and T. Foster, Vice President, with D. Pratt.

"It took a long time, but it was worth it," said the decorating committee, and here are the rewards of their efforts. Some of the three hundred whirl under the canopy, while others, "tucked out" from the last dance, take it easy and listen to the fine music.

"Yeah," came from Brother Francis, Senior Class moderator, in the familiar Chicago accent, "I think it's the biggest dance we've ever had at CBC." And it was, too! On a wet, rainy November 14, over three hundred young couples passed through the reception line, received the traditional rose, and for the next four hours, danced under a canopy of red and white, to the music of Sy Rose and Kimball Coburn. Fun seemed to bloom like the roses on the tables and walls. Leaving reluctantly at midnight, nearly everyone was heard to say—"Not only the biggest dance, but the BEST, too." Hats off to the Brothers and boys who together made this dance a tremendous success!

Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors enjoyed the big dance as much as the "old" Seniors who made their last the best one. Every once in a while they took time out for free refreshments or the fine entertainment. Above, from left to right are: S. Kindig, B. Martin, A. M. Chiozza, and C. Gallina. Below are S. Patton and S. Massey.

Dancing, left, to one of Kimball Coburn and Sy Rose's rocking-and-rolling songs are J. Haas and K. Ward. For four hours, they and many others enjoyed themselves in one of the finest dances of the year.

SETTING THE LEAGUE ON FIRE

At least a month beforehand, the Student Government and the Senior Department began plans for the Homecoming festivities; a bonfire, pep rally, and dance were to be the main events. On a cold evening in November, a large group of CBHS supporters gathered to warm themselves by the huge bonfire and to hear the inspirational words of Buddy Leake, former CBC gridiron star. On the next night, Thanksgiving, the victory dance in honor of the team was held in the beautifully decorated gymnasium. Dancing to the music of Don Glasser and the Collegiates, from eight till twelve, were some one hundred couples. The high spot for all that evening was the introduction of the City Champs.

Becoming a tradition at CBHS now is the big warm-up bonfire and pep rally on the night before the big game.

Celebrating ran high at the victory dance after the game. A glance at this table of Sophomores above will verify the general atmosphere of fun.

Almost every class of the school was represented at the dance—here, are the Frosh, Sophs, Juniors, and even College Frosh. Everyone acclaimed the dance as a huge success.

Dancing began at eight; from then on, the intermittent band and recorded music kept festivities going at a quick, happy pace.

SCHOOL ASSEMBLIES

Top right: One of the most unforgettable events of the year was the day South Side supporters (alias Seniors of the higher echelon) visited a pep rally.

Center: Suspense and excitement reign as Brother William draws the names of the winners of the Family Night prizes.

Bottom: Pep rallies held an honored spot in '58, as they raised the school spirit which eventually led us to the championship.

FAMILY NIGHT — FUN FOR ALL

Top left: One of the biggest booths at Family Night was the basketball throw; that is, until Brother Levian Thomas began cleaning them out of prizes.

Top right: "Over and Under" and dice games proved most popular. Everyone seems absorbed in the games—(ALMOST everyone, that is).

Center: Driving off the beautiful Ford which was raffled off was just what some of the thousands of people who bought chances had hoped to experience. Miss Sandra Pera was the lucky one.

Bottom: "Bigger and better" was the comment from the largest crowd which ever attended Family Night.

MOTHERS' CLUB

Over thirty years ago, a small group of mothers of CBC boys started meeting regularly, and eventually elected officers. This was the modest start of the present-day Mothers' Club. Today, the members, numbering over two hundred, are busy all through the year—lending their spiritual, material, and financial help to the Brothers and the student body to make a better CBHS. By holding their annual Family Night and Spring Card Party, the Club has been able to add many improvements to the campus. Some of these include our campanile—the famous belltower—and the resurfacing of the drives; plans are now underway for the paving of the parking lots. Certainly, all the boys in the school want to say thanks to their mother and all the mothers who take time out to help make their sons' school better. Brother William is the moderator of the club.

ALWAYS READY TO HELP . . .

"B" CLUB

The mothers of CBHS boys are not the only people who have joined together to help the school; the fathers of boys here and all past graduates and friends of the high school have formed the "B" Club. Although the two clubs have the same purpose—to help CBHS, the "B" Club has chosen to help in a different way than the Mothers' Club. The athletic program is where the "B" Club chose to act. During the year, their various projects for the betterment of both CBC's athletics and the relation between the boys here and their fathers, have included the Father-Son Night, the Football Banquet for the champs and sold season passes to the football games. Now, the Club is making donations to help better the athletic facilities on the campus.

"B" Club work takes a lot of time and energy; ask any of the officers, below, and they'll be glad to tell you. However, for a good cause you'll always find them ready to "lend a hand." The officers are, from left to right: Mr. V. J. Gabrielleschi, Treasurer; Dr. F. A. Hughes, Vice President; and Mr. W. F. Burke, Secretary. Missing are Brother H. Stephen, Moderator, and Mr. J. T. Tracy, President.

C.B.C. SWEEPS TO

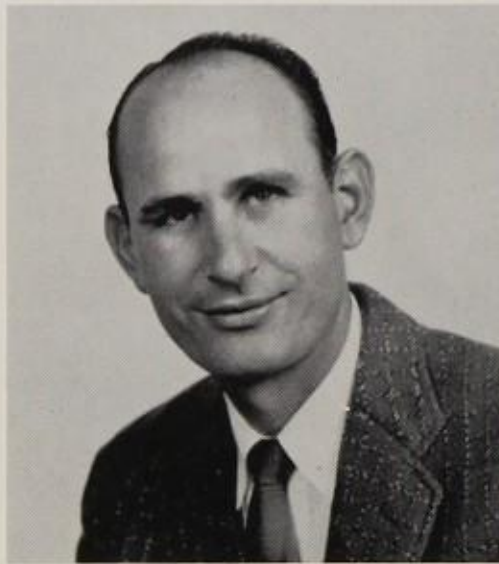

An undefeated season for the first time in the school's history! Twenty consecutive wins!

Yes, 1958 was a great year for football at C.B.C. as the team and coaches proved their greatness.

There were a few stars, but we like to think of this team as faceless for every one of the boys contributed to its success in equal amounts. The only individuals of the team were its great staff-coaches: Tom Nix, George Stone, and John Wright. In our opinion this is the finest coaching staff anywhere in the country, and we hope that they never leave C.B.C.

C.B.C. 32... WHITEHAVEN 0

For our first game, we traveled down to Whitehaven and ran through a good Whitehaven team to the tune of 32-0. The backs were superb in amassing 395 yards behind a heads-up, ferocious line, that held Whitehaven to a mere 91 total yards, while taking advantage of every opportunity to set up our scores. On the whole it was a splendid opening victory in which 43 players saw action.

C.B.C. 12... CATHOLIC 7

In game number two, a Sunday afternoon affair against George Canale and Company, winning took a maximum effort by the team, and they gave just that. Canale snatched off a Ray Saliba pass and went 83 yards to put Catholic ahead 7-0. Then, with only 31 seconds to go until halftime, Saliba passed to MacCarver, who, though covered, leaped high to make it 7-6. After stopping a Terrier push on our 28 in the last quarter, we took over and drove slowly to the winning touchdown and a close 12-7 victory.

C.B.C. 46... FRAYSER 0

Next we were off to Frayser in a wide open game that saw Bob Martin catch two long passes for touchdowns. Our free-wheeling attack, directed by Morgan and Saliba, exploded for touchdowns from all over the field as we won 46-0. Substitutes played almost half the game, and did just as fine a job as did the regulars against a rather weak Frayser team.

C.B.C. 33... M.B.A. 0

Outing number four was a trip up to Nashville to take on previously undefeated Montgomery Bell Academy. Our defense was again superb in limiting M.B.A. to 105 yards and grabbing five errant passes, while the backs were sliding and slashing to five touchdowns. Mac got three for five to make the total 33-0.

C.B.C. 32... HUMES 7

In our fifth game, we rolled on—this time over Humes to the count of 32 to 7. Mike Fracchia rambled for two first-period touchdowns that put Humes in a hole they never got out of. However, they did score, on a last down pass after the final buzzer had sounded.

C.B.C. 46...EAST 0

Victory number six was a playful, 46-0 romp over punchless East. Morgan and McCarver teamed up for two long scoring passes that broke East's neck. Then, as usual, the gang rolled up points in the second half, as Soefker got three touchdowns, one on a 68-yard caper.

C.B.C. 20...TREADWELL 12

Next we went against Treadwell in what was for us a rather strange game. They led at halftime; John Guidi intercepted a pass; and we were penalized 145 yards and lost five fumbles. However, despite the fumbles and penalties, we still had enough to win, 20-12. Fracchia and Patton quickly rang up the deciding scores after halftime.

C.B.C. 53...MESSICK 7

In game number eight, Messick made it close for half the game, but then the customary blitzkrieg struck, and, as Walter Sewart might have said, we annihilated the opposition, for we scored five times through Panther errors. Messick tried, but the rampant gang could not be checked, and the final score wound up 53-7.

C.B.C. 35...SOUTH SIDE 0

Now came South Side—previously unbeaten in nine contests, and priming for us. However, the team had a great night against South Side, holding them to 77 yards total, while we amassed 389, mostly with a devastating ground attack. Ernie Patton got 124 yards all by himself! He got two touchdowns; Fracchia two; Soefker and McCarver one each. Mac had a perfect night with his toe, getting five for five, and making the total 35-0. A tremendous effort, both by the team and the coaches.

C.B.C. 7...CENTRAL 0

Game number ten was the annual Blind Game Classic against Central on Thanksgiving Day. The near-freezing weather caused fumbles to fall right and left, as it handicapped the teams' offense, but our solid defense held Central to 79 total yards, and that made the difference. Soefker plunged in from the four and McCarver converted for the only scores of the day in the close 7-0 victory.

Above are the cheerleaders who withstood the attacks of wind and weather to urge the Championship team to victory. They have been thanked many times before but we dedicate this page to them to again show our appreciation for the outstanding job they did so well. These girls gave freely of their time and energy to attend every game and represent the team and the school individually at their own schools and at our many pep rallies. Thanks again for your faithfulness and your generosity.

"A" BASKETBALL

Coach Wright at practice.

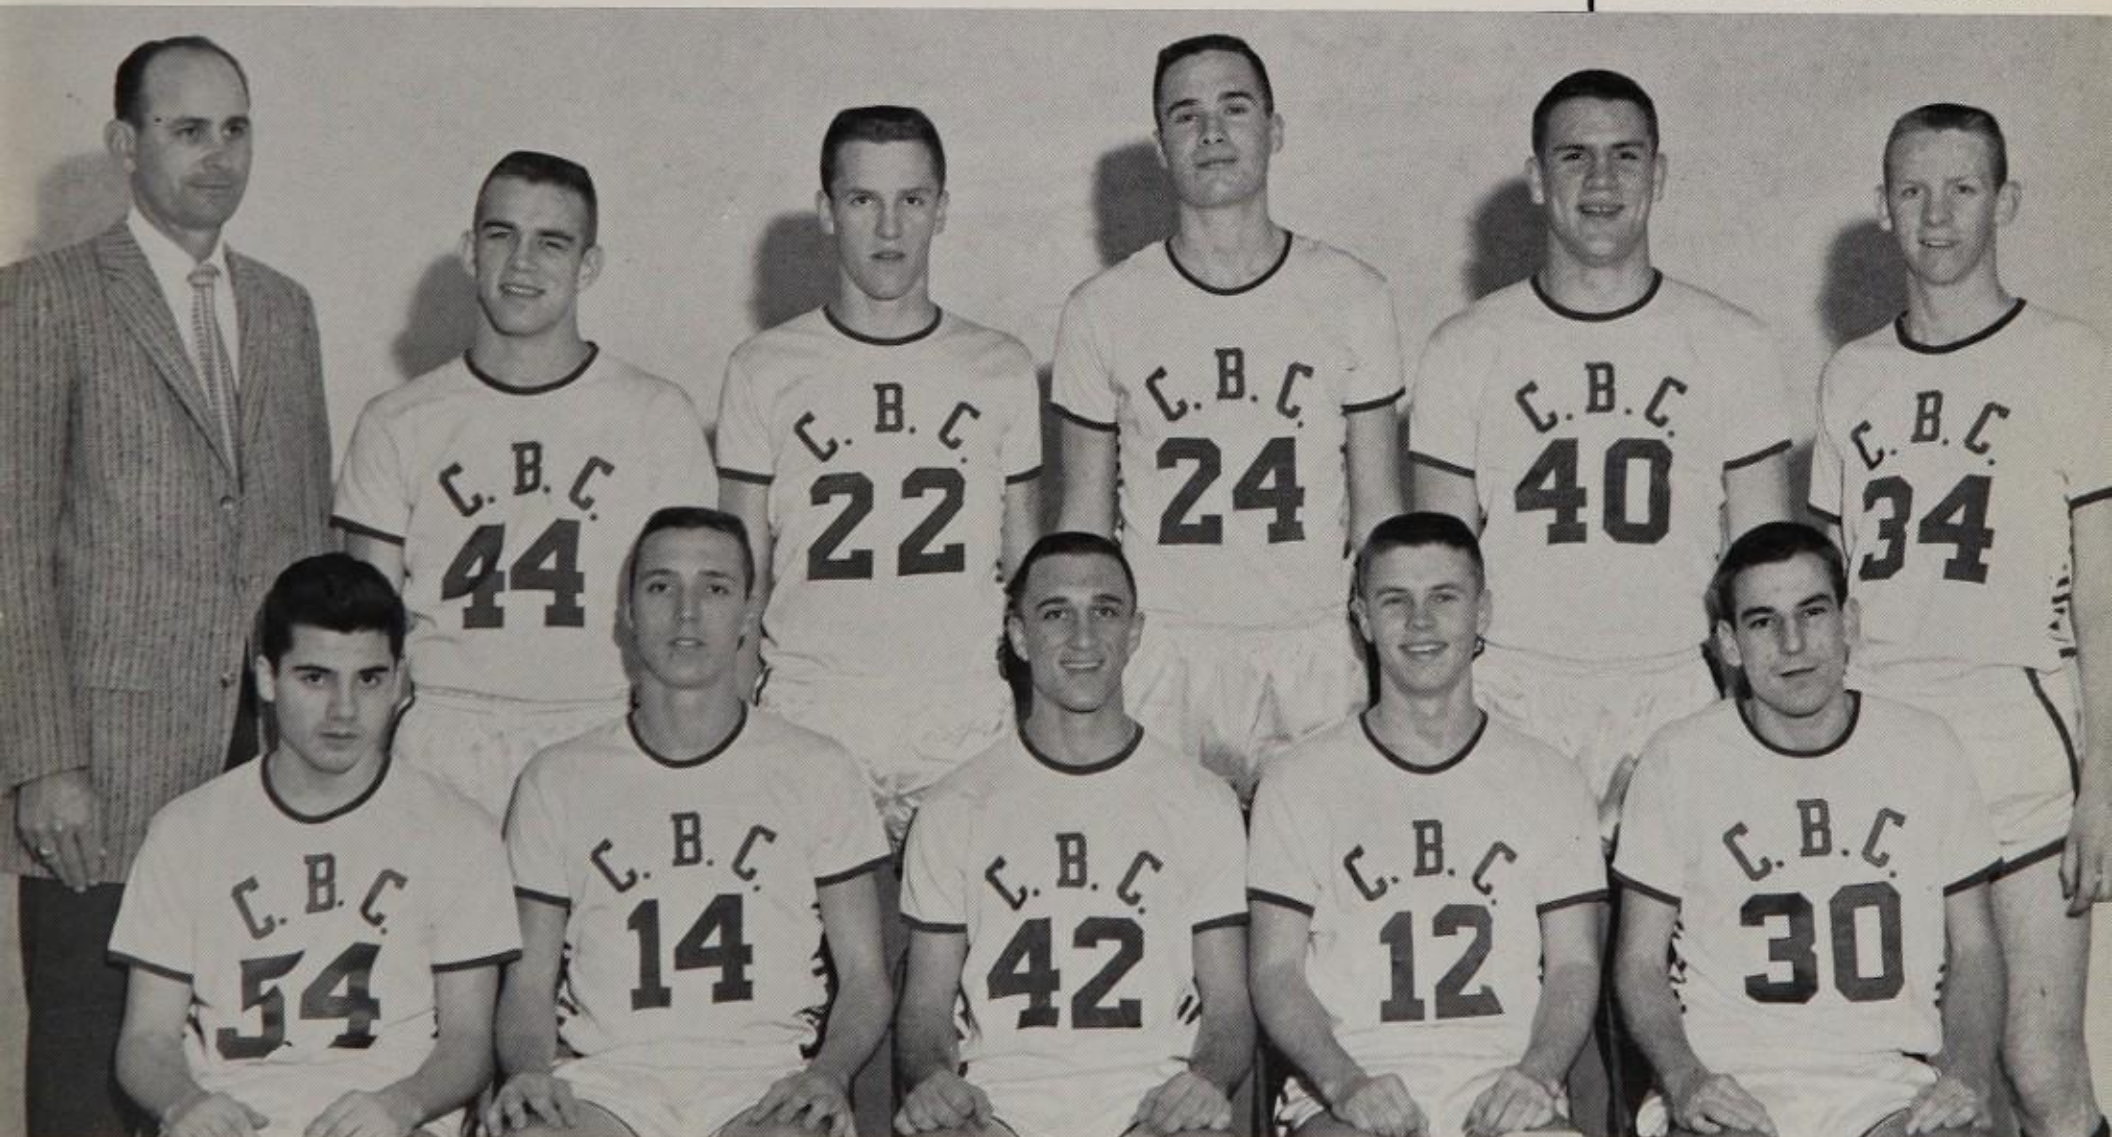

After our glorious football season, basketball might have seemed a letdown to some, but, after all, nothing could quite equal the best football team in the state, and our basketballers did very well for themselves.

The starting five usually entailed four seniors and a junior: Tim McCarver, Buddy Soefker, Phil Gagliano, Bill Vescovo, and Mike Pleasants, but Hawkins, Reno, Saliba, Sansone, and Boeving also saw plenty of action.

Coach Wright's cagers rolled to an over-all record of 18 wins and 9 losses, but at times, they looked like state champs. About mid-season, they began to hit their true form, winning 10 games out of their last 12, and ending up with the superb league standing of 4th.

Well, the "B" basketball team did not quite burn up the world, but at times looked unbeatable. The main purpose of the "B" team is to develop the players, and ours must certainly have done that, for, from about mid-year, the "B" boys played nothing but excellent basketball.

They ended the year with a mark of 13 wins and 10 losses.

"If some of you other knotheads would get out there and run, maybe we can win the City next year," Coach Nix at last year's spring letter-awarding assembly, admonishing CBHS students to come out for this year's track team.

Track does figure to be better this year—it will be an experienced squad—only two men were lost from last year's good squad.

Did we win the City Championship? You will know when you read this. Win or not, the cindermen got their share of trophies and points—you can bet your textbooks on that.

Actually, Mann started first.

BASEBALL

Below is the baseball team for 1959, with the exception of Lyn Ross, who graduated in '58. Last spring, this team came in second in Prep League play, losing to Central in the final playoff game, one in which our team made 14 errors.

But this past summer was when these boys proved their excellence as a baseball team. They played for the John A. Denie team, an American Legion team here in Memphis. During the regular season, they won their league, and this win entitled them to go to the State regional playoff in Milan, Tenn. After winning there, they returned to Memphis for the state playoffs, which they won. Then off they went to Shelby, N. C., for a regional match. After winning there, the group traveled to Ponchatoula, La., for sectional games pitting the best baseball teams in the South against each other. There they were defeated in the first two games.

Truly some gifted ballplayers—look for them to overthrow Central in the Prep League this spring, and to continue in Legion play where they left off.

GOLF NOTES

Golf, like tennis, is a minor sport at CBC, but to those fairway fiends who engage in the sport, it is just as important as any other.

The boys pictured on this page do not compose the official team; they are in spring tryouts and some will be cut later on in the season. In accordance with the school tradition for fielding only strong teams in all sports, this year's team should be a strong contender. However, they will have to go quite a distance to match last year's fine record.

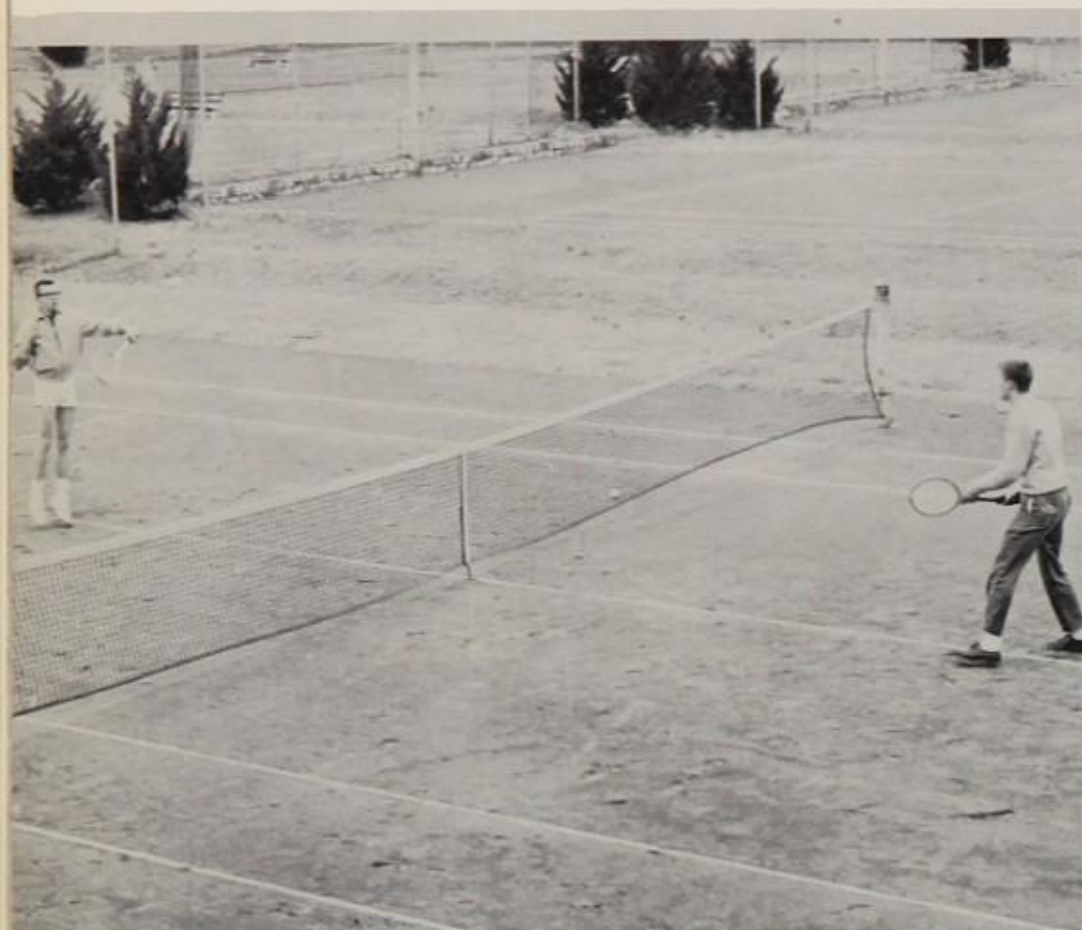

Weil tees off.

TENNIS TEAM

True, the motley looking guys on this page make up last year's tennis team, but none of these four boys has graduated, so they will probably constitute this year's team also. But—alas and alack!—we don't know any scores or data on this year's team.

If, however, it can equal its record of last year, then everyone should be satisfied.

Last year, this team finished in second place in the city league, with Saxon and Solmson sweeping all opposition except Central.

These same two boys came in third and fourth in the city-wide individual tourney. Fenberg played some for the team, but Darst didn't do much of anything.

The Freshmen at practise.

This year's Freshman team did not have quite the year that the varsity did, but they did have a most successful season. Under the very capable direction of Coach Crone and his assistants, the Frosh rolled up a 6-1-1 record and showed great promise. A small, fast squad, the team used speed and brains to outmaneuver their heavier opponents. Hats off to a fine team!

FROSH CHEERLEADERS SCORE WITH THE FRESHMEN...

The Freshman Cheerleaders are to be congratulated and commended on the terrific job that they turned in this year. During the cold, wet fall these girls were always on hand to give the frosh footballers a boost. Although, at times, the cheering section was small, the girls still expended great effort. Most any Freshman will surely say that they were good looking and energetic yellers.

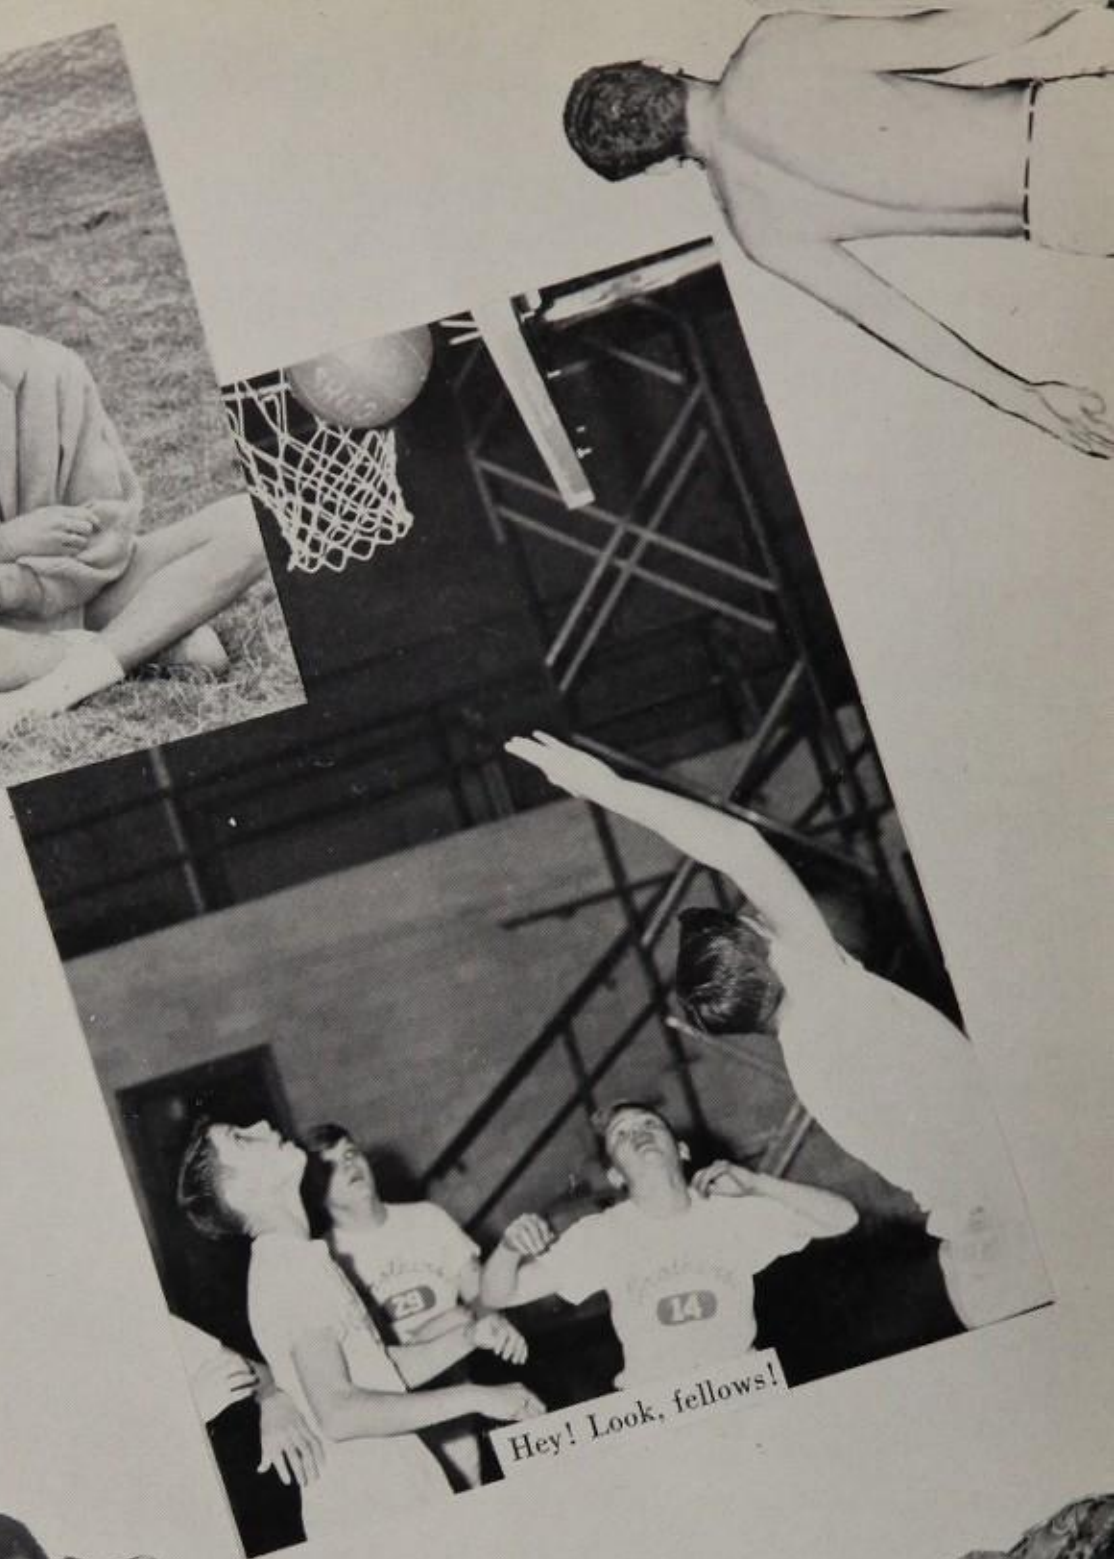

Rip, rip, rip! Rap, rap, rap! All for the Brothers, clap, clap, clap! This is one of the cheers that the girls used in their unique formations as coached by Brother Roger.

Do pass that Dew.

I'm really serious.

Hey! Look, fellows!

INTRAMURALS

This year more boys took part in the intramural program than ever before at CBHS, another record to be proud of from the year 1959.

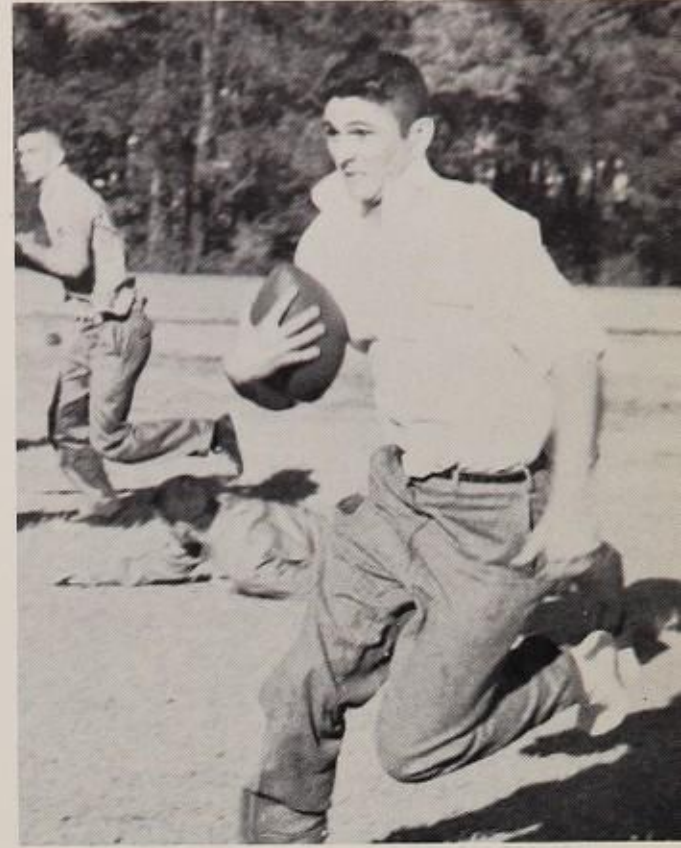

First came football, and, after some rugged competition, 110 B emerged as school champs.

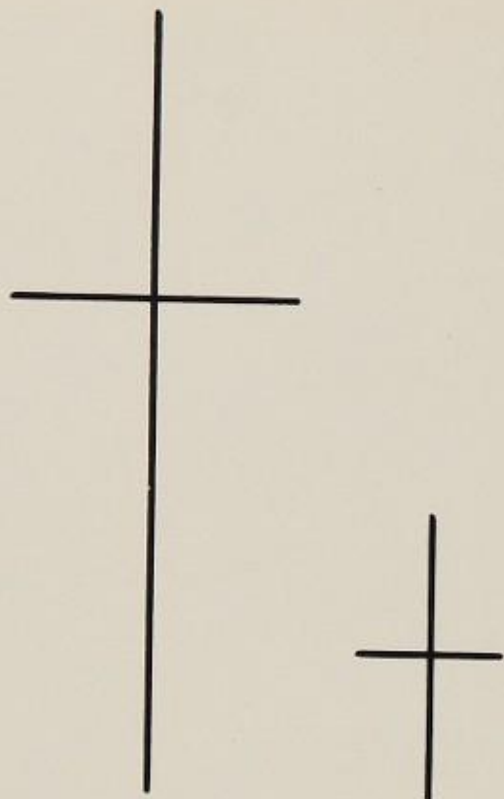

Then came volleyball, which flashed by so quickly that no pictures got taken of it. However, we do know that 109 B crushed all in the volleyball fracas.

Next is basketball, which is in progress as this goes to press.

Winding up the year will be softball.

Vic Cavola and his helpers did an amazing job of running the program smoothly; very few guys could skip study period to watch the games.

Another year has come to an end. Again most of us will soon be leaving for our summer vacations, but some of us may never return. Those students of Christian Brothers High School who are graduating this spring will someday look back upon their high school days. They will remember many things, but most important of all, they will remember and appreciate the high quality of education that they received while students under the guidance of the Christian Brothers. RELIGION, MORALS, CULTURE, and CITIZENSHIP will exemplify their lives. In their minds, they will truly know LEARNING WITH THE BROTHERS.
